

The Winds of Freedom Blow!

News for Alumni and Supporters of the
Leland Stanford Junior University Marching Band

VOLUME LXX, ISSUE III

SUMMER 2011

ALUMNI BARBECUE ON AUGUST 29

Looking for one last hurrah after a summer with the Band? Trying to squeeze in the rehearsal you promised you'd make it out to before fall gets started? Want a sneak preview of the new charts going on this year's album? Just want to play 5:15 one more time? Then get off your ass and come hang out!

LSJUMB Alumni Barbecue
Monday, August 29, 2011
Chuck Taylor Grove
6:00 pm

Come for the food, stay for rehearsal, and if you're really feeling saucy, join us afterwards at the Goose.

COME OUT AND PLAY

With two road trips, an album to record, and the rest of our big ol' bag of tricks, fall will be as busy as ever, and we'll have to step out from time to time. If you can find it in yourself to dust off the old horn and beat up your chops, we'd love to see your grizzled face. Hell, we'll even play Yellow River.

Saturday, September 3

Football vs. San Jose State

Free tickets to see...winning football!????

Saturday, September 17

Football at Arizona

If you can get yourself there, email Band Manager Ditto (blasley@stanford.edu) about playing.

Friday, October 28

Volleyball vs. USC

Hold down the fort as we trek to our home away from home, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Saturday, October 29

Volleyball vs. UCLA

Just like Friday night, but with less hatred.

Saturday, November 26

Football vs. Notre Dame

Fight the tryptophan as freshmen who don't know better leave us for a week of home cooking.

...and of course, you can find us at the Shak for rehearsal every Monday night.